compare the contract until funds were in hand. As far as he knew, he said, they were not.

The school board is to get the money from a $50,000 short term loan from the board of supervisors, Phillips had split the request into two parts, seeking $30,000 at first, leaving the $20,000 balance until Tuesday's session of the supervisors.

Wagner was asked to seek a 30-day extension of the low bid. The board is to meet again at 7 p.m. Monday.

Self contained, portable units each with two classrooms may prove the answer to the system's shortage of teaching space at North Central School.

Originally designed for 650 students, the school now has 816 enrolled. Two portable units could accommodate four more classrooms.

In addition to overcrowding, the system is also suffering from a lack of teachers.

Others speaking were E. J. Marengo, Robert J. Anderson, Richard Stamm and J. R. Favre.

Ramond tied bad management in the water and sewer installation program as the primary reason for many of the city's current woes.

He said the original contract, let in September 1965, was to run 365 calendar days.

Waveland to revise charter for tax hike

First amendment since 1915 to Waveland's town charter is being sought in an attempt to increase revenues for town operations.

Adopted Tuesday authorized advertising of the amendment in the hope of hiking their tax levy from 12 to 15 mills for fiscal 1968.

Although assessment rolls are still incomplete, two wards indicate the steadily climbing totals of property and improvements.

First Ward figures are $199,445, up $12,485 from 1966 total of $446,960. Second Ward, $42,335, up $28,590 from '66 figure of $883,745.

Altermen were told their budget is in final stages of preparation by Moore and Powell, certified public accountants, and will be available shortly.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad has volunteered to pay half of the cost of moving the old depot building to its new site and bids for this job are still being sought by both railroad and town.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lucas presented a petition, signed by Hillcrest, Terrace and Arlington Street residents, requesting the town take action against unsightly and overgrown lots in the area.

Most of the damage was done by Hurricane Betsy. Some owners apparently are under the impression the remains of their former houses must remain intact until insurance claims are settled.

Lucien Cox, Jr., town attorney, explained this was not the case and said photographs of the property were better.

Property owners are to be contacted and requested to remove debris.

County flooding or emergency problems should be phoned to Chester Favre, county CD director, at 467-7373, Favre said yesterday.

Betsy's anniversary

Hurricane Betsy lashed Hancock County two years ago Saturday, Sept. 8.

Almost knee deep in water, many area residents were reminded of the fact this week when more than five and a half inches of rain doused the county from 1 p.m. Monday to 1 p.m. yesterday.

Barely dried out from last week's four to five inches of precipitation the county's latest monsoon started Monday night and kept coming and coming and coming.

By yesterday afternoon flooding was reported in several low lying areas as Fenton, Bayou La Croix and Springwood Park. Several roads were completely under water.

Rising waters in East Pearl River added concern for most Pearl River residents who many home owners whose domiciles are up on stilts were glad they made the effort.

Waveland's civil defense director John Longo said that in the event of hurricanes or flooding the town's civil defense will operate from Town Hall and the school opened up on campus for relief shelter.

Jimmy Travica, confirmed as Bay St. Louis' civil defense director yesterday, replacing Bert Stieffel, said he would be at 467-6431 and in the event of trouble would open the civil defense center at 467-7022.

Emergency evacuation center for the Bay is the Junior High School on Second Street and Uman Avenue.

Demos confirm count

Lott, Stieffel check vote, Dean asks too

Two counts were slated Tuesday and a third was slated to begin Friday morning in the aftermath of last week's Democratic runoff primary results.

The official canvass by the party executive committee last Thursday made only minor changes in the unofficial totals and in no case altered the outcome of the races. Local winners were certified for the November general election and the state Democratic organization approved its list of nominees Tuesday.

Re-check of returns is now in progress on the petitions of Jack Lott, incumbent Beat 4 supervisor who lost to J.C. (Peck) Maunfay by 81 votes, and Bert Stieffel who trailed incumbent Walter J. Phillips for state representative, Post 2, in the two-county district of Hancock and Pearl River.

H.G. Dean, who lost his bid for re-election as Beat 1 supervisor to Charles A. Russ, III, by 132 votes, filed his request for an examination of all boxes Tuesday afternoon. It is to start at 9 a.m. Friday.

Meanwhile Leo L. Carlin of Fenton, loser by 10 votes to Joseph D. Dobson for Beat 4 constable, withdrew his plea for a recount which he presented the night of the runoff. The canvass gave Dobson one more vote than first recorded.

Ballots are being checked for irregularities in the Beat 4 supervisor's race by Lott's attorney, C. Randall Jones of Pass Christian. Indications are he will complete the inspection before submitting an affidavit to the Democratic committee. They covered three of the 41 boxes Tuesday afternoon and had done two more Wednesday morning. The canvass gave Maunfay 3,585 votes and Lott 3,504.

Stieffel's recount was running simultaneously in Hancock and by mid-morning Wednesday there was no change in the 952 votes checked, Phillips lost two in Ansley because ballots were not mailed by a manager, while Stieffel lost two in Crane Creek No. 1 because of miscounting. The Pearl River check began Tuesday morning in Poplarville and from 38 boxes no change was reported.

From the two-county district, Phillips was proclaimed winner by 59 votes. He tallied 4,820 in Pearl River and 3,197 here for a 8,017 total. Stieffel here for 8,017 total. Stieffel (Cont. on Page 3-A.)

FBI probes Red Cross gets $300 to launch Pearlington '68 United Fund cross case

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is conducting a thorough check and a Pearlington resident may appear before the September grand jury, as the result of a cross burning last Wednesday near the home of Beat 1 supervisor-nominate Charles Russ, III, of that town.

Believed set afire by juveniles as a prank, the cross was a crudely made affair that burned for only a few minutes. A group of reportedly armed men soon gathered at the scene and set off to find the culprits. Ku Klux Klan man Paul Newman, who lives nearby, was first approached.

Newman said he was escorted to the site and questioned. He insisted it was not a Klan cross that had burned.

As tempers flared another Pearlington resident, who came to the scene to assist in fighting a reported fire, stepped in and told Newman to go home. He then asked the people to disperse.

Sheriff-nominate Fred E. Curet and chief deputy sheriff Eldo Deppen were called but on learning of FBI investigation, confined their activities to crowd dispersal and night peace keeping patrols.

Newman said he has reported the incident to District Attorney Boyce Holliman who, it is alleged, is to take the matter before the grand jury.

Temporary teacher rate hike from $10 to $15 per day in an attempt to hold onto those he has. He said the increase will apply to "temporary teachers serving for an extended period of time."

Hired as bus drivers were Mrs. Jack Carter, Herman Price, Jr., Shirley Shubert, Helen Green, Clarence Green, Ruth Mitchell, Ted Acker, Ruth Felton and Elizabeth Willis.

Oren Seal, principal, Gulfview School, Lakeshore, was granted a $300 per year pay hike making his new rate $6,000. Seal was not raised at the time all other staff members were.

Miss Lamette Ladner was hired as secretary in the superintendent's office at a salary of $275 per month. She is a graduate of Hancock North Central and has studied shorthand and typing at business college.

Resignation was accepted from Oscar Breland, teacher at Lakeshore and former teacher, and principal at Logtown, who has joined the computer center at Slidell, La. He was replaced by Allan Bishop, 63, with 29 years teaching experience, holder of an A teaching certificate and bachelor of science degree. Bishop was hired at $5,000 per annum.

Beat 3 road funds run $6,400 in red

Three minor road transfers—from road re-location to beat road and bridge maintenance funds—in anticipation of the end of fiscal 1967 were authorized by the board of supervisors Monday.

Beat 5 moved $15,000 from its road re-location to R&B, Beat 4 transferred $2,388.26 and Beat 2 moved $2,980.02.

Claim dockets were approved in the various funds although warrants on Beat 3's road and bridge fund were held up since it was $6,400 over-drawn through Aug. 31. Besides purchases of road building supplies, etc., one of the bigger items was $2,874 from the general fund for election managers in the Democratic primaries.

The board confirmed approval by the State Agricultural and Industrial Board of advance remittance exemptions for Bay-side Motel and Twin Oaks Trailer Park.

In a dispute between Lawrence Aaron and George Lutch over a fence Lutch allegedly has erected across a public road in the Lakeshore area, Attorney Huble Griffin suggested a Beat 5 employee survey the scene and report back next Monday. Aaron contended the road has been worked by the county since 1911. Lutch said he was simply fencing in his own property.

He asked for a show of hands for the assessment.

(Cont. from Page 1-A.) move damaged buildings or clean up lots. Can call names of owners and, if they will not cooperate, then the town has the authority to go in and clean up lots charging the cost against the owner. With buildings as advised owners be contacted as it may prove even more costly to condemn the property and arrange for clearance.

Two council items dealt with contacting other government bodies. One is the question of school bus transportation for children attending the Bay St. Louis system living in the outside areas although within the Waveland town limits. Mayor Garfield Ladner said he believed a delegation of parents planned to bring the matter up at Monday's session of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School Board.

Aldermen also decided to ask the county for aid in fixing up the surface of town streets, several of which need urgent attention. They plan to ask the board of supervisors whether or not Waveland can utilize the county asphalt mixer.

A bid of 40 cents a cubic yard delivered on site was accepted for delivery of rip-rap to the site of the new Waveland pier breakwater, from Hydr Construction Co., to the amount of 10,000 cubic yards.

In miscellaneous items the Hearts of Love Assn. was granted permission to rebuild on the corner of Market Street and Central Avenue, providing the building was to be used for church services and not lodge type meetings; a drain was reportedly lowered on Central Avenue and Lakeside Drive, and several requests for street lights and drains were accommodated.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bermond, Jr., their second son, Victor James, weighing nine pounds, two and a half ounces, born Sept. 1 in Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bourgeois, their fourth child and second son, David Joseph, born Tuesday at Hancock General Hospital, weighing nine pounds, four ounces. Mrs. Bourgeois is the former Barbara Damians, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damians of Waveland.

From 7:30 a.m. Monday to the same time Tuesday, 1.80 inches drenched the ground. From 7:30 a.m. Tuesday to that early hour yesterday, 3.10 inches of rain accumulated in his path.

"Still raining?" we asked at 5 p.m. "Stick your head out the door and find out," the brother replied.

We did. It was... hard!

Persons interested in finding out more about the new form of government and said another session would be called at which time authoritative speakers would be present.

Cornelius Ladner then suggested forgetting the change in government and working towards fixing the streets.

Ramond agreed, gave some more examples of refusals of assistance from the present administration and said his committee could not get the present government to do anything about the streets.

This brought forth the impeachment and discharge shouts from the audience of about 150 persons.

WARREN I. ADAMS FOUND BEST PRICE ON NEW CAPRICE AT GERRY LANE HET ROLEY.

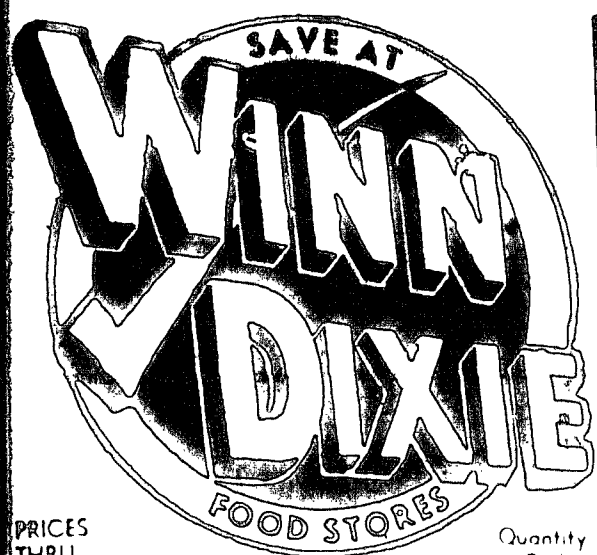

I have lived in Pass Christian area all of my life. The desire for a luxury automobile entered my mind and I started looking around. After seeing different cars both advertised and on the road, I decided on a Chevrolet Caprice. After getting prices from three or four other dealers in St. Louis, I had come to the conclusion that the advertising was true. Gerry Lane Het Rolet had both cars in stock. WARDEN J. HET ROLEY

Party peers

Key Mr. Westerman just because we happened to mention that summer in all but over, when scratching around for a political column lead for a change last week didn't mean we really expected to win. By the time Thursday rolls around, we may all be sneezing again but Saturday morning felt much more like November than Sept. 2. The celebrity breeze was definitely more than slightly fall-ish and we fear that many planned Labor Day weekend festivities had to be moved indoors.

Speaking of such gatherings, one of the gayest was the "cote mossy" beach party Saturday on the sand in front of Joan and Red Glass's home.

A huge bonfire, which felt a bit warmish when roasting hot dogs, hamburgers and marshmallows shortly after sunset, felt better and better as the winds grew cooler. Only hardier members of the younger set in attendance, specifically Christine and Dave Burch's six teen-agers and a guest, braved the water, where enjoying food and beverage included Christine and Dave, Joyce and Jake Jacob, who were responsible for most arrangements, con David and dog Frizz; Milton Cormier, Lolly Hockthorn and daughter Tammie; Ellis (uevas, Mr. and Mrs. John Lombardino and grandchildren, Kathleen and John Pat; oh, and we almost forgot to mention your reporter and Mistake Glass, also a dog.

Wrecks win alley prize

Haverly's was the scene Thursday of the Monday night bowling league banquet. First the girls dined and Betty Thomson presented some very impressive trophies. First place honors went to the Wrecks with Marie Lafontaine, Lydia Neculce, Juanita Redo, Joyce Lader and Billie Perkins as team members. Margaret DeHaan, Mar Rhodes, Bertha Zenlin and Ursula Favre were runners-up. Special awards for high games, averages, etc. went to Juanita Redo, Helen Carter, Rena Strong, Billie Perkins and a special trophy was presented to Margie Church by her mother Margie McUrchon. Margie, Jr., who usually bowls in the high 70's, ended up with a 149 game the final night, knocking mamma out of a trophy.

Cubic Larry Geoffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Geoffrey, has departed for the Philippines, after completing U.S. Navy basic training at San Diego, Calif.

A very special happy birthday greeting is on the way to "Aunt Kate" (Mrs. Katherine) Marquez who, at her 87th birthday, cake Aug. 28.

Firearms interest nil

Ed Werling reports that to date he's only had five inquiries about woman's rifle handling and firing lessons. Perhaps now that election is all over but for possible recounting, more ladies will contact him. He also asks that we remind World War I veterans of their meetings, which are the third Wednesday of each month.

George Adams was quite the man about Waveland last Thursday night.

Loretta (Mrs. Paul S.) Mary is most excited over the arrival of her fifth grand, little Michael Michele, Jr., was born at Touros on Thursday, Aug. 31, weighing seven and one-half pounds and was 21 inches in length. His mother Irla, who is a native of London, England, was hoping the baby wouldn't arrive until Saturday, as his proud papa was due to return from England on that date.

Bermuda vacation

As the rest of us peasants toil, Faye and Gerry Lane are basking in Bermuda sunshine. The trip, a reward from Chevrolet division of General Motors for exceeding his sales quota for May and June by well over 300 per cent, we'll have to add, was earned by many hours of earnest toil.

Kate and Roy Saux are at home again after a trip to Texas. They first drove to Dallas where daughter Kathy enrolled in the university, then spent a day and night in Houston, taking in the usual attractions.

Shirley and D.A. Ruusom of Puloah, Tenn., were guests last week of her parents, Jackie and Guy Bufkin.

A group of friends surprised Jenny and Frank Trepant with a big party at the Knack Knack on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday, Aug. 30.

Irla and Pete Richardson had a ball in the Crescent City last weekend where they visited Irla's aunt Thelma Casey and husband James.

Gripe corner

Where are the parents of bands of small boys armed with air rifles, rocks and what have you, who have been destroying expensive signs and show windows along Coleman Avenue???

Louise Lynch was the most recent victim. They not only shot a hole through the front show window but completely wrecked her sign just off the beach.

Margaret (Mrs. Dick) Hadden modeled some of her newest Sea Coast fashions at the Lipton Regatta in Biloxi over the weekend.

The ailing

Mrs. William Corr is a patient in Hancock General Hospital having had an emergency appendectomy on election night.

Gertrude (Mrs. Jack) Toomey is also hospitalized. She entered Gulfport Memorial last Monday and planned to have major surgery the following day, but has to wait until a heart condition, discovered in pre-operation tests, is cleared up.

Dixie (Mrs. Hilaire) Ogden had no luncheon guests Saturday Mary McAnn of New Or-

Quigley-Griffon nuptials spoken in Pass Christian

Miss Diana Letitia Griffon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffon, and Donald Thomas Quigley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald James Quigley, were wed at a capital mass at high noon Saturday, Aug. 26, in St. Paul's Catholic Church in Pass Christian. Rev. John Beggs officiated.

Orleanian is bride of Chuck Laney

Miss Pamela Charle Blackwell, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. William R. Blackwell of New Orleans, and Charles Leon Laney, Bay St. Louis, son of Raymond Leon Laney of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. Lertine Miller of North Hollywood, Calif., were married Aug. 28 at Main Street Methodist Church.

Rev. Lamar Martin, pastor, performed the single ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had Miss Barbara Lemle of Bay St. Louis as her maid of honor.

Miss Nell of Gulfport served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Laney are making their home here where he is employed as assistant manager at Jitney Jungle.

The bride, a graduate of 29 Palms High School, Calif., attended LSU in New Orleans.

Mr. Laney, a graduate of North Hollywood High School, attended Valley College, Calif.

Mrs. Shiyon is feted at shower

Mrs. Ronald Shiyon was honored with a surprise stork shower last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Sorrentino with Mrs. Herbert Shiyon as co-hostess.

Miss Debra Sorrentino presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Herbert Shiyon at the cake table. Gifts were presented from a bassinet decorated with blue and pink streamers.

Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Jerry Peterson and Mrs. Francis Perkins.

Other guests were Misses Beverly Grogg, Randy Perkins, Kenneth Lively, Jack Reinhardt, Robert Perkins, John Springer, JoAnn Knight, Joyce Lader, Marnet Shiyon and Gary Shiyon and Miss Cynthia Depree.

"Uncle Bud" Siler to at home once again after vacationing in Florida.

Mrs. fishing trio, Leah and the Long and guests Florance and Phil (Crocket, Editor and Mer Murray and the Long's grandchildren found all pickled only 87 trout on their overnight fishing trip last weekend. Our fish found much better when the Clem Sort and Judge James Christensen ventured out Saturday. They caught 350 nice specks, and the Clem Sort left early Monday for Empire to pick up Claude's new yacht which will find a happy home at Bordage's Fishing Camp. It is now official, Henry Maggio is capturing absolutely nothing but the worst, which we all know to be inevitable anyway!

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Noted ladies, and who are being vulgar, as these are lovely bright red flowers springing up in yards all over town; the daily parade of school children, as seen in the morning, straggling home in disarray at the end of the day; clouds of red dirt eliminating car's rays and the occasional cloud of a car's rear as it is, obviously completely covered by daylight coming down.
